

Local company honored

BLUE BELL - The Carney Group, a Human Resource company located in Montgomery County, was recently named to the Inc. 5000 list. The list celebrates the fastest growing private companies in America. The list is compiled by Inc. Magazine, a national resource for entrepreneurs. For over a quarter of a century, the Inc. 5000 list has served as a benchmark for the most innovative, dynamic and successful companies in the nation. As an Inc. 5000 honoree, The Carney Group is now a member of the most influential business club in America.

The Carney Group was selected as only one of nine human resource companies in Pennsylvania to be placed on the Inc. 5000 list. Representatives from the company attended the Inc. 500/500 conference in Washington, D.C. The conference featured a number of notable speakers, including keynote speaker Jim Collins, author of the bestseller Good to Great: Why Some Companies Make the Leap... and Others Don't.

Founded in 1992 by John and Nanette Carney, The Carney Group is an award-winning recruitment and placement firm which specializes in placing mature workers, which the group calls “Gold Collar Workers ®” because of the consistent quality of work offered by that demographic. For more information on the Carney Group, go to www.carneyjobs.com.